Mrs. Anne Olson and daughter Lauri left last Thursday for New York City, where they plan to spend the winter with Mrs. Olson's sister, Mrs. Winfield Chulenger. For Lauri's friends who may wish to write or send greeting cards, her address is 511 East 20th, New York City, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Berry and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Osterhout of Dearfield were guests of the former's son and family, the Stanley Berrys, for 8 days during deer season. Each of the men got a doe. Mrs. Berry's uncle, Adolph Opel of North Adams, was an overnight guest during the season also.

Miss Elsie Mae Wolcott of Carnegie Institute, Detroit, visited her parents, the DeVere Wolcotts, for the four-day Thanksgiving holiday. The Wolcotts' son, Devere, Jr., and wife of Flint were also with them for the holidays and some hunting.

Just in time for Christmas; our sale of Ladies' and Girls' Coats. Graying, Mercantile Company.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lenkowski and daughter Bonnie left Sunday for Luna Pier, Mich., on Lake Erie, where they will remain until April. Mr. Lenkowski is employed there, and came up on the weekend to take his family back with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Oliver's family from Detroit were here for the four-day Thanksgiving holiday and enjoyed a real get-together with them. They stayed at one of the Wheeler cottages on the Lake, but spent most of the time at the Oliver's. Here were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Retz and sons Robert and Mike, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Krenz, all of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Colleen, Sr., are remaining in Detroit for some time.

The Misses Alicia Hausmann of Central Michigan U. at Mt. Pleasant, and Illinois Hausmann of Valparaiso U., Valparaiso, Ind., spent the Thanksgiving holiday visiting their parents, Ted Hausmann and Mrs. Gertrude Hausmann.

Went's Lone Pine Inn will reopen January 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Sals had word that a son, Robert Michael, was born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Arnbrust, on Saturday, Dec. 1st, at Bronson Hospital, Kalamazoo. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arnbrust of Bloomfield Hills are his paternal grandparents.

The Avalanche, for the first time in many a moon, was late going to press last week. The linotype broke down and necessitated a visit from Jerry O'Hara, machinist, formerly of Gaylord and now of Cadillac, to repair it. Jerry was doing linotype repair work in Midland at the time and was kind enough to "drop everything" and come to Graying.

Thanksgiving weekend saw a good bit of company at the Don Jansen home. Guests from Wednesday through Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Frost and four children of Saginaw. Visitors Friday and Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Whelton and two sons of Freeland. The Wheltons are David Jansen's god-parents, so his birthday, which was on Sunday, was celebrated a day early to include them in the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clements left Thursday and are spending two weeks in Crawfordsville, Ind., visiting their son, the Robert Clements.

Jerry Larson, son of the Ernest Larsons, filled his deer license with a nice spikehorn buck.

Mrs. C. R. Holcomb and daughters, Joan and Darlene, left Tuesday morning for Detroit. They are visiting relatives and seeing Mrs. Holcomb's son, John Portwood, his wife and 9-month-old son from Chelsea, Mass. This will be the first time to see the new grandson and nephew and the first visit with John and his wife in 18 months. John is a recent graduate of X-Ray Tech. school in Boston and is making a career in the Navy.

Mrs. Joe Searles was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Betz at rural Alma, last week from Sunday to Wednesday. Her sister, Mrs. Doug Mallory and daughter Diane of Hutchinson, Kansas, were home on a visit so Mrs. Searles took the opportunity to see them.

Dr. Lowell Green was in Jackson Saturday and Sunday, where he attended the Interstate Cardiac Society meeting at the Hayer hotel. Thanksgiving guests of the Greens were Mrs. C. G. Calkins and Mrs. Alex Johnston of Lansing.

Home Extension News

The Jolly Gals Home Extension club met at the home of Mrs. Richard Levey last week. The business meeting was called to order by leader Mrs. Richard Merrill. The Michigan Extension creed was read by Mrs. Addison Brown. Roll call was taken and each member replied with recalling the most memorable Christmas over the years. The minutes of the November meeting and the treasurer's report were read by the secretary, Mrs. Arthur Carlson. Nine members were present for the meeting.

Wash cloth slippers made by each member were brought to the meeting, and the prize for the most attractive and original was awarded to Mrs. Paul Doest.

Plans were discussed and a pattern given for the project to prepare for the January meeting. A vote of approval was taken for members to aid in the Women's Club flower-planting project—a long the highway in the spring.

Mrs. Eldee Swanson displayed various Christmas decorating ideas she had made, and afterwards arranged and explained how she had made them, describing the materials to use.

Secret-pal Christmas gifts were exchanged, and a delicious lunch served at the dining room table where holiday decorations were used.

The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Tony Burton's on Tuesday, January 19th, at 7:30 p. m. Ann Burton, reporting for Roberta Wright.

Primary Race For Governorship Seen Shaping Up Amongst Democrats

ONE JUMPED IN — another jumped out.

Secretary of State James M. Hare, although denying a report that he is off and running for the Democratic nomination for governor in 1960, has left little doubt he considers himself in the race. State Treasurer Sanford Brown has just about counted himself out.

Brown, like Hare, is a three-time winner on Gov. G. Mennen Williams' team.

A year ago, Brown was among those mentioned as possible contenders for Williams' job when the Governor steps down. He ran strong in the 1958 election, displayed an early touch, and cultivated backing in rural areas, where he was known as "Farmer Brown."

But Brown indicated he has no interest in a primary struggle.

There are those in party leadership who say it would be just as well if Brown did not run. They say it would be easy for opponents to pick on the man who held the state's purse strings during the period of fiscal crisis, however removed he may be from the cause of the crisis.

A primary race is expected among Democrats when Williams calls it quits.

Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson is gaining support but is not himself connected here is ready for the big leap.

Supreme Court Justice George Edwards, a former union organizer, has strong backing in labor circles and among party leaders. But he has offered no encouragement to those who think it is about time to groom an heir to Williams' throne.

Attorney General Paul L. Adams lurks as a dark horse, as does Detroit city councilman Ed Carey, former House minority leader.

Democratic State Chairman Neil Staeber appears content to stay behind the scenes and denies he will make the race himself.

Small wonder Michigan's Secretary of State is a frontrunner in the 1960 election sweepstakes. The name of James M. Hare is carried around by every Michigan motorist who has kept his drivers license up-to-date.

Motorists filling out forms for the 1960 car license tabs will find it's not hard to find the name on the forms.

The 1960 legislature can expect to hear from Jim Hare on his proposal to create a Michigan consumer protection office.

Hare, capitalizing on early November news developments, said there was an urgent need for a coordinating consumers' protection agency in Michigan.

"The cranberry scare, the stories on hunters asphyxiated by defective gas heaters, the expose of false and misleading television advertising — all point up the growing concern of the public and governmental agencies regarding the lack of protection enjoyed by the American consumer," said.

ISSUES ARE SHAPING UP for the 1960 election campaign.

House Speaker Don R. Pears (R-Buchanan) told a Grand Rapids Republican rally efforts to get a sales tax and a constitutional convention will be major issues.

Republicans are apt to have a candidate who will make sure a constitutional convention is an issue. Paul D. Bagwell, GOP candidate for governor in 1958, has been keeping the issue—and himself—before the public.

Bagwell has several suggestions for revising the constitution, including a recommendation that governors get four-year terms, with a limitation of two terms.

Bagwell insists the constitution should not be changed in piecemeal fashion.

He said the 51-year-old constitution has been amended 69 times, 47 more times than the Federal Constitution.

Michigan is like a huge Gulliver bound by Lilliputian ropes, struggling to get to her feet against these countless knots," Bagwell said.

re Revenue From Lower Taxes...

Secretary of Commerce Mueller has come out in favor of a reform which will remove road blocks to business growth and "establish the right business climate." The matter arose when a newspaperman asked: "If you cut taxes to come, where do you think it should be?" The Secretary answered: "I would rather use words, 'tax reform,' because I think we have a lot of things in our tax structure that inhibit business growth, and I believe that, as Secretary of Commerce, responsibility is to make every effort to see that we establish the right business climate, so that investors and entrepreneurs, if you wish to call them such, are encouraged."

He then cited the fact that in 1954 "we had a substantial tax cut, and as a result of that tax cut, business was stimulated to the extent that within a very short period, we were actually taking in more revenue at the lower rates than we were previously."

This emphasizes an economic truth that is too little understood. A heavy percentage tax, whether on business or the individual, does not necessarily result in maximum revenue to government. A more moderate rate, which stimulates investment, expansion and the creation of new productive wealth, will in the long run bring in greater revenue—and at the same time lead to more and better jobs and higher living standards for all.

acts And A Question...

Tax Foundation reports that more major tax changes, in number, have been made by the states which held legislative sessions this year than in any year in post-war history.

Needless to say, the great majority of the changes—involved tax increases. An additional 12 involved imposition of new taxes. There were, by way of contrast, just five tax reductions and just one repeal of a tax.

The tax increases ran a considerable gamut — corporate and personal income, general sales, gasoline, tobacco and liquor. Looking at the matter money-wise, the Foundation says that governors in 31 states proposed tax increases totaling almost $1.5 billion in their 1959 legislatures.

Well, so much for the facts. The question now is — what are the American people, who ultimately have the last word, going to do about it?

is Lenin Right?...

Reports from Washington have lately given the countenance of how seriously the Administration views the fiscal problem. That problem, it is clear, is second in the President's mind only to the problem of avoiding a third world war.

TEEN-AGE DILEMMA

And the President and his advisors are not alone in this. All manner of qualified people, in and out of the government, are convinced that unless government spending can be curbed, the budget balanced, and inflation checked, we may be heading for a disaster that could destroy us as a nation, and leave the free world, which depends so largely on American strength for survival, wide open to communism. The Kremlin would win the ultimate victory without firing a shot.

This, in fact, is what Lenin, architect of Soviet communism, expected. Long ago, he wrote that capitalism would destroy itself from within. What government does to the people's money and savings will determine whether he was right or wrong.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

December 10, 1936

Fire, shortly after 1 p. m. Monday, destroyed the meat packing plant of Schweitzer and Co. on Railroad Street. The blaze was first discovered in the walls of the smoke house and its spread was so rapid that firemen were unable to check it. The plant was entirely destroyed and a very small portion of the contents saved. The loss is estimated at about $30,000, with insurance covering $13,800. According to reports, Russell Winterlee had started a fire in the smoke room, and as is usually done, the door of the room was left slightly open in order to afford a draft at the start. Winterlee was called to another part of the building and when he returned the walls surrounding the smoke room were on fire. He hurriedly turned in an alarm. The telephone operator, whose duty was to sound the siren alarm, found the siren frozen and it could not be sounded. However, firemen were called as quickly as possible. By the time they arrived the fire had a big start and there was no chance to save the structure. It burned very rapidly and soon the entire plant was in ruins. A part of the plant was located on the same street just north of the hotel annex, and for the present the firm will carry on its operations from that place.

The two Georges, Burke and Olson, are at it again—got their heads together and have ordered old St. Nick to be on hand on the day before Christmas. The kiddies of Crawford and Roscommon counties are all invited to be in Grayling on that afternoon for a movie and later to receive a treat of candies and nuts. Our felicitations go out to Mrs. Henry Feldhauser who will, next Sunday, reach the advanced age of 80 years and is still vigorous and active. As mother of a fine large family of grown-up sons and daughters, she is held near and dear by them and also by a large circle of local citizens, many of whom have known her for half a century.

For a malicious reason or by careless talk a story was started that the Lyric dance hall at Higgins Lake had been destroyed by fire, and that report was accordingly printed in our edition of last week. The report is unfounded and Mr. Frazier, the proprietor, is, of course, denying the story as far as to who started the false report.

Sunday night at about 8 o'clock when the blizzard that visited this section that day and night was at its height, the garage on the property of T. J. Wells and its contents including the family car, was destroyed by fire. It is thought by Mr. Wells that the fire started from a short circuit in the automobile. The fire had gained such headway with the gale that was blowing that the building was in flames before it was discovered by neighbors.

The Misses Ella and Margrethe Hanson of Lansing accompanied their mother, Mrs. Oscar Hanson, and Mrs. H. A. Bauman, home Friday and spent the weekend here.

Carl Johnson, who has been on the road in the interest of the Automobile Works of Fredrick, is home for the winter and reports a most successful year.

Mrs. Mae Malone is leaving next week to spend the winter in Florida. Mrs. Malone enjoyed the winter months there last year so much that she is returning again for a sojourn.

Eight ladies, members of her bridge club, were guests of Mrs. C. R. Keyport at a very attractive luncheon Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Roy Milnes received the honors for contract that followed the luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Worden and Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Failing drove to Fife Lake Tuesday evening, and accompanied Mrs. Worden's niece, Miss Beulah VanSycle, here. She will visit them for some time.

Mrs. Clayton Strachey returned Monday from Mt. Pleasant, where she visited for the past week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna Thurston, who has been very ill but is feeling quite a little improved.

One of Grayling's popular eating places, and known for years as the Hanson Restaurant, changed hands today when Frank Bennett bought out the business from James Bugby. Mr. Bugby has found the restaurant work too confining for the good of his health, and this is his reason for disposing of the same. The public needs no introduction to the new proprietor, who is maintaining the services of Fred Bishaw, who will be in charge of the restaurant.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Babbitt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corwin, Miss Helen Babbitt and F. J. Mill were dinner guests, Sunday, at the home of Mrs. Babbitt's mother, Mrs. Frank Barber, at Roscommon the occasion being Mrs. Barber's birthday anniversary. They report a most enjoyable day.

Kenneth Hoels left Sunday for Gladwin, where he was joined by Dan Woods, of that city, and the two left for Florida, making the trip by motorcycle. If everything goes well, the boys expect to travel on to California.

Gaylord High School laid the cornerstone for a new athletic center Friday evening when the new gymnasium received "its official dedication ceremony." This fine new gymnasium is made to accommodate 2000 people, and there must have been close to that number there to attend the initial basketball game and the well-planned entertainment which followed. It must have made the Gaylord boys feel especially good when they took their first game on the new floor, scoring 12 to 10 against Mancelona.

Arrangements are in progress for the second annual Moose ball which will be held at the opera house on New Year's night. Mrs. John McClellan and little daughter of Bay City are visiting her sisters, Mrs. Daniel Hoels and Miss Blanche Blondin and brother, Moose.

Severn Jensen, who drives a delivery wagon for Sorenson Bros. furniture store, had quite a painful accident yesterday afternoon when, as he was getting onto the wagon after making a delivery, the horse started up, throwing him to the ground, he striking on his head and cutting a deep gash near his temple.

H. C. Holbrook and family have sold their home in this city and are moving to Tekonsha, Mich. This takes from Grayling one of its oldest families, the Holbrooks having moved here from Branch county in 1882.

Certainly a strange method of locomotion. This picture was snapped last October 31st by Hurl Doolittle of Grayling while in Canada on a fishing trip accompanied by his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Palmer, Sr., and Dewey Palmer, Jr. Yes, it is hogs in harness. They belong to H. G. Hurley of Echo Bay, Ontario, Canada who observed that it takes a bit of work to keep a hog calm. His five-month-old team is shown pulling a wagon about his farm. Hurley has been halter breaking pigs for 20 years because it teaches them obedience, he said.

Crawford Co.'s Inflation Bill $127,000

(Special to the Avalanche)

New York, Nov. 25 — What has been the dollars and cents effect of inflation on the average Crawford County family in the past year? To what extent has the spiraling cost of living reduced its purchasing power?

On the strength of recent economic studies, it appears that the average local family had a loss of $115, attributable to inflation, in the one year.

That is the amount of additional goods and services it would have been able to buy had the prices remained the same as they were in 1957.

The studies of inflation, conducted by the Tax Foundation, by the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics and by the American Institute for Economic Research, reveal that last year's dollar, in terms of its 1957 equivalent, was worth only .83 cents.

Lost to the American people, because of this deterioration of the dollar, was a total of $200 billion in purchasing power during the 1958 year, according to the American Institute.

The $115 loss in such buying power per family in Crawford County last year was related to the local income which averaged $4184 per household, according to the findings of Sales Management.

The total cost of inflation in Crawford County, with its 1,100 households, amounted to $127,000 in 1958.

For those of the population who are still actively employed, inflationary losses have been more than overcome by improved earnings. Those people, or most of them, have been able to raise their standard of living despite the fact that goods and services cost more than they did.

The victims of the inflation are the retired and the incapacitated people living on fixed incomes such as pension checks and proceeds of insurance policies and on savings.

Concern over the steady weakening in the value of the dollar and its ultimate effect on the whole American economy is being expressed in many quarters. The Tax Foundation feels that much of this depreciation is the result of continued deficit spending on the part of government. Cited as the other major cause is the annual cycle of higher wages, which is followed, perforce, by an increase in living costs.
